

Monthly Direct Debit

Terms and Conditions

There is no lock in period applicable to the Monthly Direct Debit Membership. It can be cancelled at any time after the initial purchase period has expired. The initial purchase period is the first month of membership. The Monthly Direct Debit Membership can be cancelled thereafter, provided adequate notice has been given, see below.

The Monthly Direct Debit fee will be deducted from your bank account or credit card, (depending on your nomination), on a monthly basis. This deduction will appear on your bank statement as "Ezidebit Payment Tech Newstead," not Australian Yoga Academy.

If your Monthly Direct Debit Membership payment cannot be processed by Ezidebit, (for whatever reason, eg. change of credit card/bank details or insufficient funds), your Membership will be suspended until payment recommences. Ezidebit will charge you a declined processing fee of $9.90.

The Monthly Direct Debit Membership continues until you contact us requesting cancellation. Please call 03 9510 7474 or send a cancellation email to info@australianyogaacademy.com

Provided we receive your cancellation notice at least 7 days prior to your next payment period, your membership will end and no further payments will be deducted.

Memberships can be suspended if you are on holiday or suffer illness or injury that prevents you from practicing. The minimum period of suspension is one week to a maximum of two months. If memberships are suspended, there will be a new payment period to reflect the suspension period. This new payment period must be taken into consideration when cancelling memberships and the 7 day notice period is still applicable. For example, if you suspend your membership for 15 days, then your new payment period will be on the 15th of each month, therefore, you will need to give 7 days notice prior to this date.

Requests for suspension or cancellations must be emailed to info@australianyogaacademy.com.
