Monthly Direct Debit

Terms and Conditions

There is no lock in period applicable to the Monthly Direct Debit Membership. It can be cancelled at any time after the initial purchase period has expired. The initial purchase period is the first month of membership. The Monthly Direct Debit Membership can be cancelled thereafter, provided adequate notice has been given, please see below.

Payment will be deducted at the time of purchase if done via the online store. If purchased via form at studio there may be a delay of 1-7 days, so please ensure funds of $120 are available in the nominated account for this period.

The Monthly Direct Debit fee of $120, will be deducted from your bank account or credit card, (depending on your nomination), on the same date of membership purchase each month. This deduction will appear on your bank statement as "Ezidebit Payment Tech Newstead," not Australian Yoga Academy.

If your Monthly Direct Debit Membership payment cannot be processed by Ezidebit, (for whatever reason, eg. change of credit card/bank details or insufficient funds), ezidebit will charge you a declined processing fee.

The Monthly Direct Debit Membership continues until you contact us via email requesting cancellation. Please send cancellation email to info@australianyogaacademy.com

Provided we receive your cancellation notice at least 7 days prior to the end of the month, your membership will end at the end of that month and no further payments will be deducted.

Memberships can be suspended if you are going on holiday or suffer illness or injury that prevents you from practicing. Please provide a minimum of 5 days notice via email to info@australianyogaacademy.com. The minimum period of suspension is 7 days to a maximum of two months. If memberships are suspended, there will be a new payment period to reflect the suspension period. This new payment period must be taken into consideration when cancelling memberships and the 7 day notice period is still applicable.

For example, if your payment is due on the 1st day of the month and you suspend your membership for 15 days, then your new payment period will be on the 15th day of each month following, therefore, you will need to give 7 days notice prior to this date.
